Nathaniel Witherell Residents Hit Jackpot at the 13th Annual Casino Day

GREENWICH, CT February 22, 2020 – The Junior League of Greenwich (JLG) hosted its 13th year of Casino Day at The Nathaniel Witherell, where residents tried their luck on Saturday, February 8th . For the past 13 years the JLG's volunteers bring Casino Day to the residents at The Nathaniel Witherell. At this annual event, laughter indeed is the best medicine! It's designed as a day of entertainment for the entire senior community. The event featured Bingo, Roulette, Slot Machines and other casino themed games provided by Ace and Jack Enterprises, located in Valley Stream, New York. The event was put on by the JLG's Done in a Day committee, as well as several Sacred Heart students who volunteered and announced games, such as Bingo. The room was decorated with a casino theme and the residents were able to enjoy refreshments. The residents were also able to win cash prizes and gift certificates, including on-site spa services and other goodies. It was a fun-filled day for all and excitement filled the room!

The Nathaniel Witherell is a short-term rehab and skilled nursing center located on 24 beautiful acres, just two miles from downtown Greenwich. The Witherell is committed to person-centered care provided by a compassionate, highly competent and experienced staff. They are a nonprofit that is owned and operated by the Town of Greenwich. The center has served the community since 1903.
